Project Highlights

- ✔ Overhead passenger protection, damaged in 2012 during Hurricane Sandy, has been redesigned to withstand high winds.
- ✔ Impact on Newport's sewer system will be minimized and flooding during future storms mitigated.
- ✔ Upgraded lighting, signage and other features make it easier for passengers to make their transit connections.
- ✔ Careful attention has been paid to design and aesthetics, in keeping with the facility's importance to Rhode Island's tourism industry.
