

ROUTE 67 | BELLEVUE / MANSIONS

Route 67 operates between Marble House, located on Bellevue Avenue at Bancroft Avenue, and Newport’s Gateway Center. In summer, the route is extended to Bellevue Avenue and Ledge Road in order to serve the Cliff Walk. The route serves many of Newport’s significant tourist destinations, such as the Newport Mansions, Tennis Hall of Fame, Newport Art Museum, and the Cliff Walk. It also serves Salve Regina University.

Proposed Changes

- No alignment changes are proposed.
- Route 67 would continue to operate every 20 minutes.
- Adjust schedule times to allow for coordinated transfers at Newport Gateway, with timed connections to Routes 60, 63, and 64 once an hour.

Related Changes

- A new Route 60X Newport Express via East Bay would provide three inbound AM peak trips and three outbound PM peak trips, making limited stops. It would operate on West Main Road and Metacom Avenue to Kennedy Plaza.
- Route 14 West Bay would no longer operate between Newport and Providence. Route 14 express trips would be replaced by a new Route 68X Newport Express via West Bay, providing three inbound peak period trips and three outbound peak period trips to Providence via Routes 138, 4 and I-95. Route 68X would stop at Wickford Junction commuter rail.
